Expectations

We encourage a wholesome, godly atmosphere for our Bible School, and we appreciate your help in meeting this expectation with the following conduct.

During Bible School please respect the wishes of your host and the principle.

Please dress neatly and modestly. Please consider modest dress as an opportunity to show your respect for one another. Come prepared to dress in a way that does not distract yourselves or others from our goal of seeking first the kingdom of God.

Men: Wear non-form fitting long sleeve button down shirts and dress pants (No blue jeans or cargo pants). Short sleeve shirts and blue jeans acceptable for volleyball on Saturday (No t-shirts). No jewelry.

Women: Wear loose fitting full-length dresses including a cape or double-layered blouse (No skirt and blouse) All jackets and sweaters should be open in the front (no pullovers). Hair should be worn up, with a head veiling for believers (no head bands). No jewelry or makeup.

Students are expected to attend all classes and activities. You will need permission from the principle to leave the premises or skip any sessions.

The breaks between class sessions should be used for restroom, drinks, etc. (no spike ball or other games except at noon break)

Please bring a hardcopy Bible with you. Cell phones will be left in a designated location during all classes.

Show proper respect and reserve toward the opposite gender and refrain from dating.

Students must be at least 17 years old unless pre-approved.

Students from a distance will be lodged in local church homes and will be expected to abide by the rules of their host. Please be in bed with lights out by 11pm.

Registration is $125.00 per student. Apply by Feb 28, 2023
